History

The Jack Howard Scholarship in Gerontology was established in 1990 in honour of Jack Howard, President of Juan de Fuca Hospitals (Glengarry, Aberdeen, Mt. Tolmie, Priory) from 1979-1990 and a founding member of the Juan de Fuca Hospital Foundation, now called the Greater Victoria Eldercare Foundation.

Jack Howard contributed a great deal to the professional development of Juan de Fuca employees. He strongly believes in the need to communicate and share new advances in health care delivery.

Criteria & Purpose

The Jack Howard scholarship is designed to assist those qualified applicants in furthering their professional development in the area of health care delivery to the elderly. The criteria are set forth below.

Eligibility and Expectations

1. Employees of Facilities or Programs supported by the Greater Victoria Eldercare Foundation shall be given preference.
2. The course work must benefit care for the elderly.
3. The applicant must be accepted at a recognized learning institution in post baccalaureate leading to a certificate or degree in the area of health care delivery to the elderly.
4. The expectation is that the student's research or course project would focus on care for the elderly.
5. Any work that is published must recognize the support of the Greater Victoria Eldercare Foundation.

Funding

The award shall not exceed 50% of the tuition for any given degree program per applicant. Proof of registration, course payment and attendance will be required before grant is issued. Once you have been notified for approval of the award you will have 6 months to submit the required information to the Foundation Office for processing.
